MASTER OF ADVANCED MANAGEMENT

IE-YALE
OBJECTIVE

As part of the Global Network for Advanced Management, a forum of elite business schools from around the world, IE is able to offer students an IMBA as well as a Master of Advanced Management (MAM) from Yale University School of Management (SOM). The MAM program gathers the most promising management students from around the world to exchange ideas and points of view that complement the knowledge and skills they learned in their home countries as MBA students.

This dual degree opportunity will provide enriching opportunities inside and outside the classroom. Students will attend classes with Yale MBA students, interact with distinguished faculty and guest speakers and engage in club activities. The curriculum will include SOM courses as well as graduate-level courses offered in other schools that compose Yale University. Furthermore, students will have access to the Yale Career & Recruiting Services and Alumni network.

Yale University School of Management Master of Advanced Management

While at Yale, MAM students will follow a personalized program of graduate-level study in management, economics, political science, international relations, and other fields through coursework at Yale SOM and across the university. Students choose from hundreds of elective courses taught by leading experts.

MAM students take the equivalent of five courses each semester (20 academic credits). Four are electives chosen at Yale and one is made up of the combined MAM core classes.

The following sample schedules illustrate curricular possibilities. A total of 10 semester courses are required to graduate.
ADMISSIONS CRITERIA

Students will apply to both schools separately and be evaluated for admission by each based on respective requirements and criteria. For administrative identification applicants to the dual degree program will be requested to indicate their intentions on their applications forms.

The IMBA - MAM Dual Degree is only available to those students who have completed or are in the process of completing their International MBA at IE Business School.

DEADLINES

IE Business School offers two intakes per year (September and January) for its International MBA program and has a rolling admissions process meaning there are no application deadlines. Nonetheless, early application is highly recommended to ensure a place in the intake of your choice.

The application deadline for the MAM program at Yale School of Management is on January 15th 2015, March 1st 2015, April 15th 2015. Please note that you will need a recommendation from the dean or director of your program as part of the application process and that all MAM students are required to have a visa to legally study in the United States by the start of the program in early August*.
