Foundational Objectives

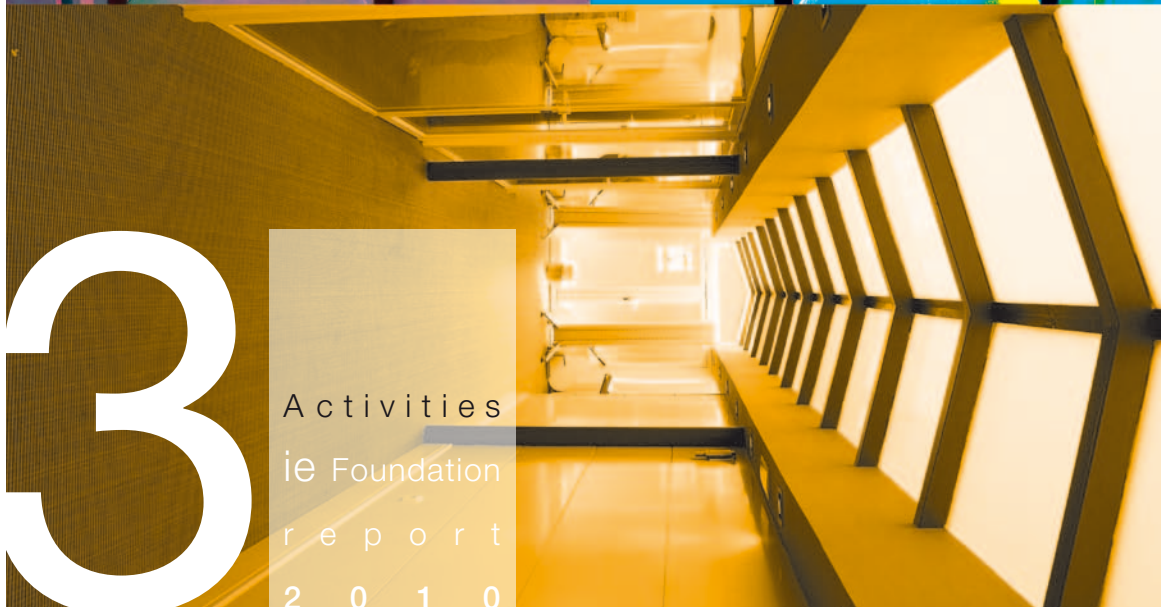

The IE Foundation is an instrument of IE that enables students, teachers and staff to further their educational, research and management activities.

Priority is given to the training and cultural outreach of all people and institutions that have ties with IE.

Resources go to funding scholarships for students, grants for training and research for professors, and funds for updating and improving IE's educational structure.

The Foundation operates throughout Spain, but also has an international presence throughout North and South America, Southeast Asia, the Middle East, Northern Africa and Europe.

Centers

Center for Negotiation and Mediation

This Center, directed by Mercedes Costa, was created with the objective of fostering the study, research and practice of negotiation techniques in order to improve the negotiation skills of all kinds of professionals.

Activities

- Teaching: Master programs and post-graduate courses, Executive Education, in-company and on-line training courses.
- Research: Topics such as negotiation methods, interpersonal communication, linguistic, relational and persuasive resources, power relations and means of influence, creativity, divergent thinking and value creation, as well as negotiation in the international arena. The following activities are worthy of note:

Negocia Forum: A forum designed to generate knowledge regarding the nature, purpose and limits of negotiation. The work of this forum revolves around three complementary axes: round tables and conferences; the Negocia Forum studies and extensive diffusion.

Negociar para CON-seguir

Furthering of the wealth of “Negotiation skills” knowledge. Continuation with the line of research on “Negotiation and Joint ventures in China”.

• Dissemination:

Negotiation and Mediation Centre website
<http://centronegociacion.ie.edu>, publications and open days.
 Participation in forums and conferences.

Center for Corporate Governance

The main objective of this Center is to encourage research, training and dissemination in the areas of Corporate Governance, Corporate Responsibility and Corporate Reputation. It is a joint initiative between Bankinter, Iberdrola, PWC and IE Business School, headed by Tomás Garicano.

Activities

- I Corporate Reputation and Responsibility Seminar. Recovering trust. The transparency required by stakeholders.
- II Corporate Governance Seminar.
- Round Table: The reform of the Unified Code of Good Governance (CUBG). The new legislation on director remuneration.
- Round Table on restrictions on voting rights.
- Research projects:
 - Reflections for the debate on Restrictions on Voting Rights.
 - Good Corporate Governance, Dialogue between Shareholders and Corporate Reputation.
 - Good Corporate Governance and State Commercial Companies.
 - Shareholder Transparency and Good Corporate Governance.

Diversity Global Management Center

The Center was created to further the management of diversity in terms of gender, culture, age and skills as a competitive advantage in the corporate world through reflection, knowledge generation and the diffusion of know-how.

This Center, directed by Celia de Anca, includes the Islamic Finance Center, which, in cooperation with the King Abdul Aziz University of Saudi Arabia, aims to become the European center of reference for the study of Islamic economics and finance.

Activities

- Projects to support improved integration of women into the production network.
- Active cooperation with the global program “10,000 Women”.
- Training and mentoring program for female entrepreneurs from Liberia, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Rwanda, Senegal, Mozambique and South Africa. In cooperation with FAS (Femmes Africa Solidarité) and AECID (the Spanish Agency for International Development Cooperation).
- Support for existing initiatives: Ongoing support for national initiatives that encourage female participation in governing bodies and work/life balance programs (LiderA scholarships, Madrid region).
- Mentoring program, aimed at high-potential female Master's students at IE. This program is designed as a professional development instrument in which mentoring forms a key part.

Center for Human Resources

The Center is an initiative which seeks to support executives and specialists of this field in order to update their professional skills.

Its principal objective is to act as a forum for the generation and exchange of expertise on different aspects of Human Resources, with a particular focus on emerging topics that could affect management capacity in this area in the near future.

Its activity focuses on three major areas: knowledge creation, dissemination of expertise and network generation.

Activities

- Benchmarking club, a platform for the exchange of Human Resources indicators and best practices that enables the segmentation-based comparison of data between companies, and facilitates networking.
- Internal Communication and Corporate Identity Observatory, a space for sharing experiences and expertise in these areas. An ongoing debate and research forum which provides a closer look at the most effective and innovative actions and projects.
- Expansión y Empleo Awards, coordination of these annual awards created for the recognition of companies showing particular innovation in the area of Human Resources, culminating with the presentation of a report.
- Applied research on matters of Human Resources interest.
- Organization of seminars and conferences.

Chairs Madrid Global Chair on International Urban Strategy

The Madrid Global Chair on International Urban Strategy is a joint initiative between Madrid City Government and IE School of Architecture. Its objectives are:

- To support research, training, knowledge creation and dissemination, and to organize and cooperate with forums for the exchange of experiences in international urban strategies, with a special focus on the city of Madrid.
- To bring together knowledge about the economic and management dimensions of cities' international strategies.
- To act as a laboratory where the research agenda for this issue is drafted, and as a think tank, anticipating future trends.

In March 2010, the Chair was relocated, and now falls within the IE School of Architecture & Design and under the management of Martha Thorne.

Activities

- Participation in EXPO Shanghai 2010 with a conference on the theme of "Better City, Better Life" at the Madrid Pavilion.
- AA/IE Madrid Summer School 2010. Bleaching Green workshop.
- China: An Inside View Program. Executive Program in cooperation with the Cheung Kong Graduate School of Business.
- Informative session: Current Opportunities in China's Economic Growth.

José María Cervelló Chair

The José María Cervelló Chair, directed by Carlos de la Pedraja and since recently by Pilar Galeote, was established to honor the founder and professor of the IE Law School.

The Chair funds scholarships for the tax and legal programs of the IE Law School, for students with excellent academic records and limited economic resources.

The Chair's activity is three-fold: Teaching (of the Consultancy Policy course), research and diffusion and dissemination.

Activities

- Annual José María Cervelló Award, organized jointly with the law firm Ramón Hermosilla & Gutiérrez de la Roza.
- Conferences, seminars and debates on legal research and developments.
- Strategy and acts as part of the Consultancy Policy course.
- Periodic publications in national and international legal media.
- Program for donations and contributions to the Chair.
- Monitoring of scholarship-holders and persons who have received awards from the Chair.
- Design of the Chair website <http://catedracervello.ie.edu>
- Reviving of the Chair's blog with an average of three to four posts per week <http://cervello.blogs.ie.edu>

Cash Management Chair

The goals of this Chair, directed by Francisco López Berrocal, are essentially research, dissemination and training in relation to recommended practices and procedures. To achieve these aims, it has created three observatories and a website <http://catedracashmanagement.ie.edu> for their dissemination.

The Chair's work focuses on the three areas of day-to-day financial management:

- Client relationships or Credit Risk.
- Supplier relationships or Expense Management.
- Cash Management.

The Chair has three observatories:

- The Credit Risk Observatory.
- The Expense Management Observatory.
- The Observatory for Bank Negotiation.

The Cash Management Chair is sponsored by Crédito y Caución, Aquanima and the Choice Group.

Chair of Business Ethics

This Chair was created in 1995 by IE alumni as a result of their concern about a decline in ethical values in Business.

Its objective is to provide support in issues related to ethics, offer courses on business ethics, undertake relevant research projects, present papers at International Congresses and publish in economic journals.

This initiative arose as a result of the need to provide a response for all entrepreneurs and/or executives and professionals with projects in progress, as a platform where they could share their experiences and concerns, and explore issues of interest between the entrepreneur community.

Responsible Strategic Communication Chair

The purpose of this Chair, directed by Pascual Montañés, is to generate knowledge that enables the understanding and management of the impact of Responsible Strategic Communication. It aims to act as a meeting point for discussion and reflection between companies and institutions, while providing them with both the information that enables them to understand Responsible Strategic Communication and the appropriate tools for managing and implementing it. Lastly, it seeks to carry out dissemination and awareness-raising activities in order to foster responsible attitudes.

Activities

- Research activities: Generation of knowledge to help institutions and the business world better understand and manage Responsible Strategic Communication.
- Dissemination work: Promoting the development of joint initiatives with other institutions and IE Centers in order to facilitate the exchange of experiences and best practices.
- Post-graduate teaching and training work: So that awareness and the search for new Responsible Strategic Communication formulae constitute a competitive advantage for organizations.

The Chair is sponsored solely by Grupo La Información.

Chair for People Management

The principal objective of this Chair, directed by Cristina Simón, is to foster innovation and ongoing improvement in the Human Resources practices of the Inditex Group. This is essentially achieved through the development of applied research and knowledge transfer projects, studies of the state of the art and the creation of interdisciplinary work groups that focus on current issues affecting people management in the fashion industry. Close coordination between the academic environment and professional practice in the company results in the design of specific Human Resources practices that are implemented in the companies of the group, and come to constitute best practices of interest to other companies in the industry.

Activities

- Professional update projects for the Human Resources departments of the Inditex Group chains.
- Documentation projects: Review and selection of centers and sources of Human Resources information in the retail/fashion industry.
- Applied research.

PÉREZ-LLORCA Chair for Commercial Law

The aim of this Chair, directed by Soledad Atienza, is to generate applied research of the highest standard in the area of Commercial Law and to share this research with law firms, companies and law schools. All this is achieved through the joint work and activities of the IE Law School and the law firm Pérez -Llorca.

Activities

Description

A research project with the following aims: a) to characterize the various forms of eco-innovation and identify and outline different study dimensions of innovation processes that have an environmental impact; b) to determine the implications of eco-innovation against the traditional dichotomy between competitiveness and sustainability (environmental protection); c) to identify obstacles to the development and adoption of eco-innovation; d) to define the public policy measures that could help to reduce such obstacles (or incentivize the decisive factors thereof) thereby increasing the adoption of eco-innovations; and e) to help managers introduce eco-innovation into their business strategy

Consolidation of a network the main global objective of which is to make the mass customization debate part of mainstream research on Management, with special attention paid to research into operational management

A project designed to study Spanish entrepreneurship from a gender perspective, with a particular emphasis on the traits that characterize female entrepreneurs, their motivations, their perceptions regarding the company creation process and ways in which they gain access to self-employment

A Conference aimed at furthering knowledge regarding research methods in the field of business studies

A Symposium bringing together PhD students, academics, professionals and researchers of Supply Chain Management from all over the world, as well as other experts of utmost relevance in the subject, with a view to generating, disseminating and sharing the latest research, expertise and experiences in the field. It also aims to create links between them and take advantage of the feedback opportunities afforded by the Symposium format. Subject of the Symposium: "Supply Chains in times of crisis and recovery"

International Conference on the European Education Area, to complement the research activities of the IE University's Centre for European Studies, which pursues its activities with the support of the European Commission's Education, Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency, as part of the Jean Monnet Program of the Lifelong Learning Programme

Preparation of an analytical study of the data collected by the Italian Committee for the Evaluation of the University System (CVNSU) in order to determine the most relevant features of Italy's university system

A project consisting of the implementation of a research-led training program specifically designed as part of a rigorous research agenda focusing on the multi-faceted phenomenon of managing emergent technologies, with a view to integrating it with an additional focus on advanced capacity building and career development for the benefit of young researchers

A project seeking a compared analysis of the varied autonomous community legislation that regulates Spanish youth hostels, as the disparity between and discrepancies in such legislation currently constitute an obstacle to development for a segment of the tourism sector that is experiencing a worldwide boom

A research project consisting of a study and subsequent executive report, designed to analyze the effectiveness of relational marketing in Spanish companies

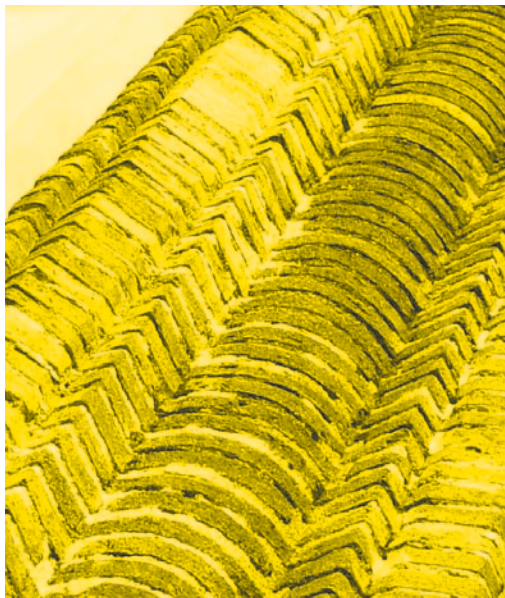

An applied research project that seeks to identify inefficiencies in the medical care processes that exist for patients with a specific illness (acute coronary syndrome) with the ultimate aim of defining an improved process and model that can be applied to the object of study and, in turn, replicated in other hospitals and patient care services

Research focusing on best practices and current trends in people development and the implication thereof for the range of professional development tools and processes that are implemented in organizations, through a look at the reality and needs of Banesto

Publications

Joint publication of the IDEAS magazine

The IE Foundation co-publishes the IDEAS magazine with the IE Business School Alumni Association.

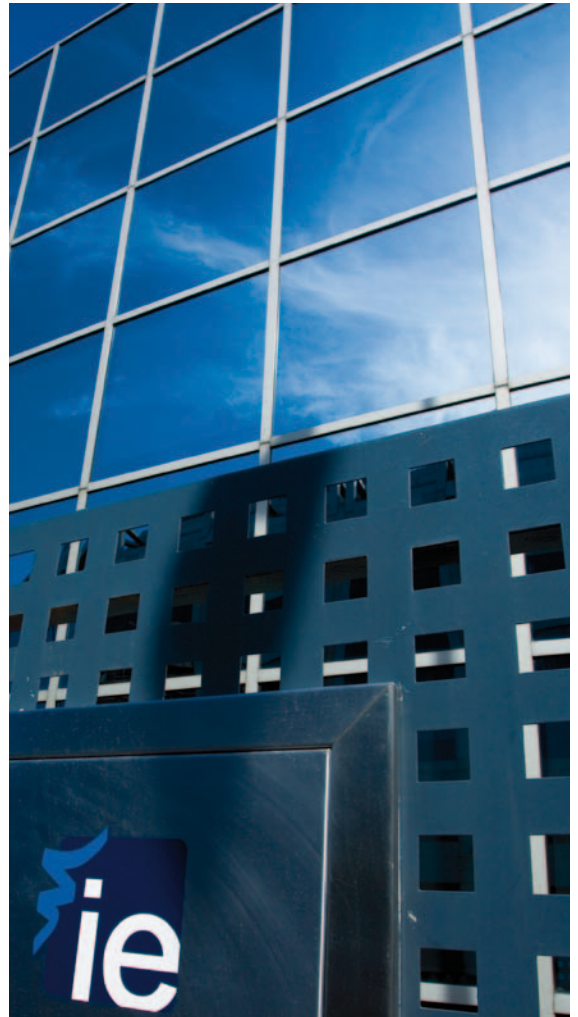

IDEAS, which is distributed free of charge on a quarterly basis, is a legal, economic and business publication that acts a platform for disseminating business excellence and company creation practices, as well as articles by leading experts in these fields, among other things.

This publication is distributed both nationally and internationally.

IDEAS is also available online at:
<http://www.ideas-empresariales.com>

Sponsorships

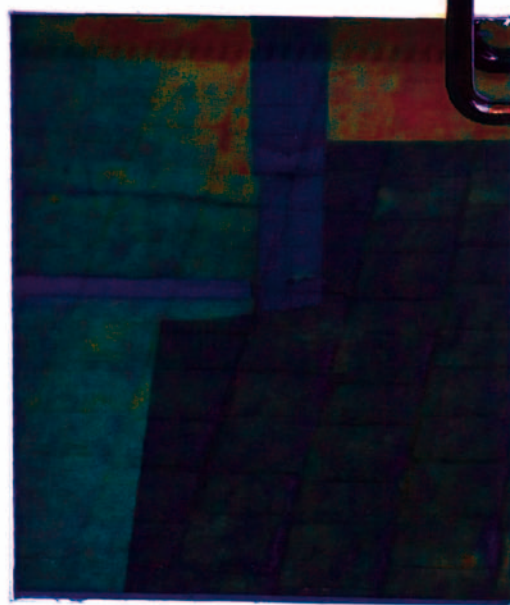

The IE Foundation engages in a range of institutional support actions, both internally and externally. In this connection, it works with: Fundación Amigos del Museo del Prado, los Jueves Jurídicos del Colegio de Dirección, la Asociación Española de Fundaciones, European Foundation Center (AISBL), el Real Colegio de Harvard, la Fundación Luca de Tena, Foundation Center, Club de la Haya.

Particularly worthy of note in this Report is the support for the IV Symposium on Management in Public Policy, on the subject of “Sustainable Cities in a Globalized World”, which was held at Harvard by the PwC’s Center for Public Sector Innovation and IE Business School, under the direction of Julio Gómez-Pomar, from 26 to 30 July.

This is the fourth course on management and public policy to be held with the Real Colegio Complutense at Harvard and with the participation of the David Rockefeller Center for Latin American Studies – Harvard University (DRCLAS).
