The Global MBA, ranked the #1 Online MBA by Financial Times, is geared toward professionals seeking to propel their careers, strengthen their business acumen and expand their network in a class forged by diversity and ambition. This program allows participants to explore and discover new, exciting leadership opportunities without setting aside their personal or professional commitments.

Career Evolution

Students will acquire the hard and soft skills required to think and act as global leaders. Through individual coaching, Career Services sessions and the Core MBA curriculum, participants are equipped with the necessary tools to analyze best business practices and challenges of top companies from around the world.

A Global Context

The Global MBA boasts a curriculum that challenges students to view business through an international scope. The Global Immersion Weeks, with their interactive company visits and renowned guest speakers, and the highly diverse class profile all contribute to internationalizing the experience and career projection of the participants.

Networking

The Global MBA allows students to form lifelong relationships with other ambitious professionals from different cultural and professional backgrounds. The program presents a successful balance between teamwork, weekly classes and videoconferences that ensures daily contact with peers and reflects the way companies operate in today’s increasingly global environment.

An Innovative Learning Approach

The program is tailored for students to balance their education with the obligations of an intense work schedule and personal life. By combining face-to-face classes with interactive online periods, the Global MBA brings together students from all around the world, enriching the traditional classroom experience. The Online Campus boasts a series of online interactive tools, such as asynchronous forums and participative faculty-led live videoconferences, which give students the chance to hone their professional skills without limitations.
