PAPERS UNDER REVIEW

Conditional acceptance from Academy of Management Journal (AMJ): Strategic Implications of CEO Compensation Design: Re-visiting the Behavioural Agency Model.

I am FIRST AUTHOR on this paper and my co-authors are Professor Luis Gomez-Mejia (Texas A&M) and Professor Robert Wiseman (Michigan State University)

DISSERTATION / WORKING PAPERS

I am studying the role of the board of directors in influencing CEO and firm risk taking. Thus, my dissertation consists of the following three studies:

1. Strategic Implications of CEO Compensation Design: Re-visiting the Behavioral Agency Model
With Professors Luis Gomez-Mejia & Robert Wiseman
2. Leading CEOs into Temptation: CEO Compensation Design and Earnings Management
With Professor Luis Gomez-Mejia & Robert Wiseman
3. Social Networks, the Risk-Return Relationship, and Resilience to Exogenous Shocks
With Professors Remzi Gozubuyuk & Manuel Becerra (both IE Business School)

I am first author on each of the above. I am also working on the following (first author on 1 & 2 below), although these will not be part of my dissertation:

1. Family Firms as Dominant Shareholders and Earnings Management: Socioemotional Wealth and the Agency Problem in Family Firms

With Professor Luis Gomez-Mejia and Joanna Campbell (PhD Candidate, Texas A&M)

2. Family Firms and Stakeholder Management: Management & Shareholder Proposals and Preservation of Socioemotional Wealth
With Professors Luis Gomez-Mejia and Marianna Makri (University of Miami)

THE ABOVE TWO WORKING PAPERS ARE CITED IN ACADEMY OF MANAGEMENT ANNALS by Gomez-Mejia, Cruz, Berrone & De Castro, June 2011

3. Ethics of Executive Compensation
With Professor Luis Gomez-Mejia
4. Firm Vulnerability to the Global Financial Crisis: Re-Visiting the Risk-Return Relationship
With Professor Manuel Becerra
5. Executive Compensation and Strategic Behavior: The Role of Compensation and Efficacy in Influencing Strategic Risk. With Professors Luis Gomez-Mejia, Marianna Makri (University of Miami) & Nathan Washburn (Thunderbird School of Management)

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Executive Summary

I am a qualified Chartered Accountant having trained with Deloitte, Sydney. Subsequently I have worked in risk management roles in Investment Banking (Credit Suisse, London and Singapore) and Retail Banking (Egg Bank, London). After my MBA I worked as Financial Controller (TXU Energy Australia, Melbourne) and a Strategy Consultant (IAMCO, Johannesburg). I have also worked as a team leader, Project Manager and Counsellor for a youth charity in Chile and HIV charity in South Africa.

Credit Suisse, London (May 2006 – May 2008)

Position: Senior Vice President – Investment Banking, Operational Risk

- Operational Risk internal consultant to Investment Bank EMEA Asset Servicing and EMEA Research, advising on operational risk management and mitigation for new business, the IT book of work, KRI analysis, incident analysis and business as usual ad hoc issues.

Egg On-line Retail Bank UK (Prudential plc), London (March 2005 – May 2006)

Position: Head of Market Risk Audit

- Managed internal audit reviews in Treasury and Wholesale credit risk. Reviews have included post implementation review of Asset and Liability Management reporting system (including IAS 39 implementation), Basel 2 and SOX implementation.

Travel in South America (November 2004 - February 2005)

IAMCO Consulting, Johannesburg (July 2004 – October 2004)

Position: Associate Strategy Consultant

- Managed a team of four, researching and analysing the business and corporate strategies of the major beverage and confectionery competitors to Cadbury Schweppes (the client) in South Africa. This culminated in a presentation detailing competitor profitability and strategies.
- Performed economic profitability analysis of individual competitor products and country business units, through product reverse engineering and detailed research

TXU Australia, Melbourne (September 2002 – July 2004)

Positions: Financial Controller

- Managed derivative financial reporting for the Energy Finance Business
- Promoted to Financial Controller of Merchant Energy Business after an initial 4 month period as a Senior Auditor, managing control and operational reviews throughout TXUA.

MBA – Melbourne Business School (MBS) (Jan 2001 – June 2002)

- Awarded the annual AT Kearney Strategy Scholarship through winning the strategy case presentation competition.
- Earned additional funding via the LEK Consulting Fellowship to attend an exchange semester at the University of Texas, Austin

Raleigh International Youth Development Charity, Chile (Sept– Dec 2000)

Position: Team Leader

- Project Manager/Team Leader for the Raleigh Youth Development Charity in the Patagonia region of Chile, where I was responsible for coordinating a group of twelve youths to assist the Chilean Government in saving a species of deer. My primary role was to develop the youth's leadership and team skills, and to manage logistical aspects of the project such as food supply and transport, in what is one of the more remote parts of the world.
- Team Leader to Prince William for a three-week period as part of the Chilean Raleigh expedition subsequent to extensive vetting by the British Royal Family in London and Chilean Patagonia. The team in my charge combined the extremes of royalty and Oxbridge graduates, with problem youths directly out of gaol (the latter comprising 25% of the team).

Credit Suisse First Boston, Singapore (April 1999– July 2000)

Position: Product Controller – Asian Derivatives

- Risk managed and reported the exposures and results for these products. The derivatives in question were swaps and FX forwards. Re-engineered financial modelling techniques (using Excel spreadsheets) to value and report interest rate swaps, forward rate agreements, bonds and currency options to traders and senior management.

Amvesco GT, Dublin (April – December 1998)

Position: Business Analyst / Project Manager

- Implemented the General Ledger Interface (GLI) and Bank Reconciliation aspects of their new Global Funds Administration System (GFAS).

Credit Suisse Financial Products, London (July '96 - May '97, September '97 - April '98)

Position: Product Accountant for CSFP

- Managed North American collateral as part of the Collateral Management Unit (CMU), negotiating daily calls with clients such as LTCM, Fannie Mae, Goldman Sachs, Merrill Lynch, Bear Sterns. Liaised regularly with Credit & Legal Departments to resolve disputes.

Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, Sydney (February 1993 - March 1996)

Position: Client Manager & Consultant

- Completed my chartered accounting qualification with two years in Audit and one in Management Advisory (MA). The latter was a mixture of Operational Reviews (aimed at improving overall efficiency) and Fraud Control Reviews (improving and implementing client systems & controls).

HOBBIES & INTERESTS

Qualified Personal Fitness Instructor (Diploma in Personal Training and Fitness Management)

Obtained proficiency in Muay Thai kick-boxing with 6 week live-in at Rawai Gym in Thailand
