International

An ideal learning environment that gives students an international outlook, prepared to work in a global world.

"What I like about IE University is the international environment and the culture of entrepreneurship which is deeply engrained in the University's values."

The vast resources available to students who are building their own businesses do a lot to foster the entrepreneurial spirit in the student community."

Munya
Zimbabwe
Bachelor in Business Administration (BBA)
Class of 2014

"The international community at our university not only provides me with friends and contacts from around the world, but it allows me to sit in a classroom where so many different cultures merge to discuss a topic from multiple angles."

This is an experience that made me trust myself and taught me how to think outside the box."

Valerie
Germany
Bachelor in Communication (BBA)
Class of 2013

"I am learning from both international teachers and students, some of whom I consider part of my family."

The reduced number of students in a classroom and around campus makes the learning and social environment more personal. This allows you to learn from others, mature more rapidly as a person and be ready for the 'real life' that awaits everyone after University."

Carmen
Spain
Bachelor in Business Administration (BBA)
Class of 2015

Entrepreneurial

IE inspires students to be entrepreneurial in any field or discipline.

“

Angela Nantulya
Uganda / Kenia / UK, Class of 2008
CEO, IDA Plus and Business
Development at Brentec
Investments

A key differentiator in my MBA experience at IE Business School was the incredible opportunity to work on business plan development with female entrepreneurs from Africa with the potential to make a difference in their respective countries. The chance to put newly acquired skills into practice for such a rewarding cause was priceless!

Pioneering

An environment where you can open up to new areas of thought, research or development and venture into the unexplored.

“

Aditya Anupkumar
India
International MBA
Class of 2013

IE Business School is an incredible melting pot of people and ideas, based in the heart of one of the great European cities. We've had an innovation and entrepreneurial focus for a while now – those are the i and e in IE, after all – and with the new startup incubator here, things are going to get even more interesting.

Integrated Vision of Knowledge

The integration of knowledge at IE gives students well rounded training in a wide range of skills that go beyond their specializations. Advisors give students focus and consistency as they integrate their academic activities with practical training and projects.

Personalization

At IE you are at the center of your education. We have shifted the gravitational center from the classroom to the relationship between students and their Advisors, making the journey a personalized experience.

Our Values

IE's values of academic rigor, an integrated vision of knowledge, Humanistic education, and a personalized student experience, empower our students with the skills, outlook and professional training they need to become leading figures in a dynamic and constantly changing world.

Humanistic Education

Our Humanistic education gives students the framework with which to understand different cultures and social situations. Through this Humanistic vision we enable students to see new possibilities for being and doing, allowing them to be innovative and entrepreneurial in a globalized world.

Academic Rigor

IE insists upon excellent standards of academic teaching and learning. Students learn from highly qualified experts and faculty comprised of professors who are both scholars and practitioners. Ongoing evaluation by professors and Advisors helps students to continually achieve their potential.

About IE

Founded in 1973, IE Business School is an international business school that focuses on first-class education of entrepreneurs and company executives.

IE has a faculty composed of more than 500 professors who instruct students from over 90 countries, in undergraduate degrees at IE University, masters and doctoral programs at IE Business School and executive training from the Executive Education area.

IE fosters research and multidisciplinary and integrated education. # Talent and excellence development program

IE and IE Foundation have launched a program in support of talent and excellence, the “2013-2017 Talented Leaders Scholarship Program”. The program aims to attract and educate exceptionally talented individuals at an international level through high impact scholarships, academic excellence and social responsibility.

The Scholarship program is made possible through generous donations from alumni, executives, companies, foundations and other institutions. Donations received will ensure that bright, talented, high-quality students from diverse geographical locations, cultural, economic and professional backgrounds have the opportunity to access first-class education and professional development.

This program reinforces the image, responsibility and educational dedication of IE through the acquisition of new talent, strengthening the IE community and society in general.
