MBA Tournament

What is the MBAT?

A sports tournament where all the largest MBA schools in Europe come together to compete, network, and party!

When is the MBAT?

May 14-16, 2026 (Thurs-Sun)

Sports every day from 9:00 - 17:00 and parties in the evenings.

Where is the MBAT held?

HEC Paris Business School hosts the tournament on its campus. It's all student-run.

How much is the MBAT?

TBD. But, based on last year:

- early ticket came out in late Jan, max €700
- regular ticket came out in Feb

What's included in your MBAT ticket?

What IS included in my ticket:

- Hotel for 3 nights (May 14-16)
- Shuttles from hotels to events (sports and parties)
- All events and parties (potentially not the Gala night)
- Participation in sports you're selected to compete in
- Entrance to campus for non-participants
- Breakfast on campus all 3 days

What is NOT included in my ticket:

- May 13th accomodation
- Flights and non-event transportation (airport to hotel)
- Lunch and dinners (there will be food trucks around campus)
- Additional drinks (there will be water stations around campus and potentially some drinks included at the parties)

Each sport has its own coach!

Coach's responsibilities:

- Managing the team's WhatsApp group
- Organizing tryouts (if needed)
- Coordinating training sessions
- Responsible for the team during the tournament
- Point of contact for the sport

Captains can participate in sports, although ideally, the coach should not participate in the sport they are coaching.

FAQ

- Is there a deadline to register?
 - TBD, this is based on the ticket sales by HEC Paris.
- Do we have to miss class?
 - No. IE is closed on Thursday, May 14th.
- Can participants compete in multiple sports?
 - Yes, participants may compete in multiple sports as long as they don't interfere with each other. If the competitions are scheduled at the same time, they will have to choose one sport to compete in. We will share the final schedule once it's confirmed by HEC Paris.
